46.18 CLERK'S UPDATE REPORT & COMMUNICATION

- Requested additional signage "No Dog Fouling Permitted" from SC, to upgrade existing worn signage.
- STAR Housing delighted with outcomes of basket swing project at Birch Grove and tried to arrange photo shot with councillors in June, outcome unknown at this point.
- Severn Trent leak successfully reported using their website and resulted in road closure w/c 18/6 of B4397.
- Solicitor progressing purchase of Cliffe, however not expected to be finalised until August/September.
- Website, a number of councillors have yet to provide pictures and a short description about themselves. Whilst not all councillors have set up their parish council email accounts. The latter is important because it is a GDPR requirement.
- Eon St Lighting Team have installed sample lights on School Rd (R16) and above at R34.
- Various updates have been circulated via the website, and added in some instances, my thanks to Dave Shearan.
- June newsletter issued and since mailing list amended to comply with GDPR.

47.18 FINANCE – As insufficient cheque signatories are present, permission from Council requested to arrange any urgent payments in August, with approval of Chairman and cheque signatories which will be reported at the next meeting on 28th August 2018. Clerk confirmed following standing order payment has been made in respect of Clerks salary 20/06/18 £740.98, as authorised and checked by the Chairman.

48.18 SUPPLEMENTARY AGENDA – Urgent items only.
