

RUYTON XI TOWNS PARISH COUNCIL

CODE OF CONDUCT

Updated and adopted: June 2020

Next review: June 2021

Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Ruyton XI Towns Parish Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members and co-opted members whenever they conduct the business of the Council, including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed, or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council. All members of the Council have a responsibility to represent the community and work constructively with staff and partner organisations to secure better social, economic, and environmental outcomes for all.

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Code, a 'co-opted member' is a person who is not a member of the Council but who is either a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, or a member of, and represents the Council on any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Council, and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee.
2. For the purposes of this Code, a 'meeting' is a meeting of the Council, any of its committees, sub-committees, joint committees, or joint sub-committees.
3. For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes a co-opted member of the Council.

Code of Conduct principles

In accordance with the Localism Act provisions, when acting in this capacity Councillors are committed to behaving in a manner that is consistent with the following principles to achieve best value for our residents and maintain public confidence in this authority:

- SELFLESSNESS: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.
- INTEGRITY: Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

- OBJECTIVITY: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.
- ACCOUNTABILITY: Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
- OPENNESS: Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- HONESTY: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
- LEADERSHIP: Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

Behaviours

By signing their Declaration of Acceptance of Office, all councillors agree that their conduct will in particular address the statutory principles of the Code of Conduct by:

- Championing the needs of residents – the whole community and in a special way our constituents, including those who did not vote for them - and putting the interests of constituents first.
- Dealing with representations or enquiries from residents, members of our communities and visitors fairly, appropriately, and impartially.
- Not allowing other pressures, including their financial interests or those of friends, family, or colleagues, to deter Councillors from pursuing constituents' casework, the interests of the Authority's area or the good governance of the authority in a proper manner.
- Exercising independent judgement and not compromising their position by placing themselves under obligations to outside individuals or organisations who might seek to influence the way councillors perform their duties as an elected/co-opted member of this authority. Councillors shall not seek to improperly confer an advantage/disadvantage on any person.
- Listening to the interests of all parties, including relevant advice from statutory and other professional officers, taking all relevant information into consideration, remaining objective and making decisions on merit.
- Being accountable for their decisions and co-operating when scrutinised internally and externally, including by local residents.
- Contributing to making this authority's decision-making processes as open and transparent as possible to enable residents to understand the reasoning behind those decisions and to be informed when holding councillors to account. Councillors shall not however disclose information which is confidential or where disclosure is prohibited by law.

- Behaving in accordance with all legal obligations, alongside any requirements contained within this authority's policies, protocols, and procedures, including on the use of the Authority's resources.
- Valuing colleagues and staff and engaging with them in an appropriate manner and one that underpins the mutual respect that is essential to good local government. Councillors shall not behave in way which a reasonable person would regard as bullying or intimidatory.
- Always treating people with respect, including the organisations and public with whom councillors engage and work alongside.
- Providing leadership through behaving in accordance with these principles when championing the interests of the community with other organisations as well as within this authority.

Registration and Disclosure of Pecuniary Interests

Registration of interests

1. As a Member of Ruyton XI Towns Parish Council ("the Council") Councillors are by law required to register certain interests (known as "disclosable pecuniary interests" or DPIs) of themselves and those of their partner<sup>1</sup>. These interests are set out in Appendices A and B at the end of this document.
2. Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, or the member's election or the co-opted member's appointment (where that is later), he/she shall register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A and B.
3. Upon the re-election of a member or the re-appointment of a co-opted member, he/she shall within 28 days re-register with the Monitoring Officer any interests in Appendices A and B.
4. A member shall register with the Monitoring Officer any change to interests or new interests in Appendices A and B within 28 days of becoming aware of it.
5. A member need only declare the existence but not the details of any interest which the Monitoring Officer agrees is a 'sensitive interest'. A sensitive interest is one which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead the member or a person connected with the member to be subject to violence or intimidation.
6. Copies of Parish Councillors Declarations of Pecuniary Interest can be found at: <https://shropshire.gov.uk/> or are available from the Clerk.

<sup>1</sup> Partner includes your spouse, civil partner, or person with whom you are living as if they were your spouse or civil partner

Declaration of interests at meetings

7. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. He/she only has to declare what his/her interest is if it is not already entered in the member's register of interests or if he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it.
8. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A which is a sensitive interest, the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. If it is a sensitive interest which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the member shall disclose he/she has an interest but not the nature of it.
9. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix B, the member shall not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.
10. A member only has to declare his/her interest in Appendix B if it is not already entered in his/her register of interests or he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it or if he/she speaks on the matter. If he/she holds an interest in Appendix B which is a sensitive interest not already disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, he/she shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.
11. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than an interest of a person in Appendix A), the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

Dispensations

12. On a written request made to the Council's proper officer, the Council may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion and vote on a matter at a meeting even if he/she has an interest in Appendices A and B if the Council believes that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.
